

St.John's Men's Fencing Closes Out Perfect Regular Season

Contributed by Beatrice Pickup
Saturday, 31 January 2004

JAMAICA, N.Y. -- The St. John's men's fencing team closed out its first perfect regular season in five years with a trio of wins at Columbia on Saturday afternoon, while the women's team dropped two of three bouts.

St. John's will return to action on March 14, competing at the NCAA Northeast Regional Championships in New York.

Full Story at: http://www.redstormsports.com/pls/portal30/sportdev.redstormsports.press_release?p_id=3135