Adidas released the new adiStar Fencing Shoe for sale this weekend on the shopadidas.com web site.

Visit Shop Adidas for the new adiStar fencing shoe.

The features highlighted include:

- ClimaCool® provides 360-degree cooling for the entire foot
- Sabaton forefoot armor protects against épée attacks to the foot
- adiPRENE®+ in the forefoot maintains propulsion and efficiency
- Perforated EVA in forefoot, tongue and collar for breathability, comfort, support and protection
- RadialCurve contours in the heel strike and medial zones for secure, consistent, piste contact
- adiWEAR® outsole offers the ultimate in high-wear durability; One-piece outsole for consistent piste contact and suction cup outrigger for superior grip

Initial reports say that they look similar in size/shape to the Asymmetricals.
